

Climbing the Stairs to Mercy

“For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin. Let us then approach God’s throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.” Hebrews 4:15-16

Conference on Mercy

This is a time for exploring the meaning of mercy and allowing God's unconditional love and limitless mercy to transform our lives.

Pokrova Church (Parma, OH)

Saturday April 16, 2016

The conference will start with registration at 9:30 am until 3:30 pm. Admission is free

Lunch will be available - donations accepted

Confessions will be available

The program will feature three presentations followed by group discussion to share insights and reflections.

1. “What do we know about Mercy from the Scriptures?” - Rev. Jason Charon
2. “Do we pray for Mercy in the Liturgy?” - Rt. Rev. Msgr. Archimandrite George Appleyard
3. “Why practice Mercy in our Lives and Parishes?” - Rev. Michael Polosky

More information will be provided in your parish bulletins or call (216) 524-0918 for Pokrova Church (6790 Broadview Road Parma, OH 44134)