Divine and Human Aspects of Holy Scriptures

The fullness of God's Revelation is Jesus Christ, the God-man, in whom along with the human nature “the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily” (Col 2:9). As the divine and human nature's are united inseparably in Christ, so in the Holy Scriptures the divine Word of God is transmitted to us by human language. God's words, expressed in human words, adapted themselves to human language, just as the Word of the eternal Father, when he took upon himself the flesh of human weakness lived just like a human being. “ The Word of God permeates all of Holy Scripture. That one Word resounds from the mouths of all the holy sacred ministers; that Word which was with God from the beginning does not require syllables because that Word is not depended upon time.” (#41)
