

Excerpt from Christ Our Pascha

The Only-Begotten Son

The Holy Spirit is often compared to breath, by which the spoken word resounds. Appropriately, within the Most Holy Trinity, the Father speaks the Word (begets the Son) by the Holy Spirit: “And it this [Breath] which in the moment of utterance becomes the articulate word, revealing in itself Force force of the word.” (John of Damascus) (# 92)